EXPERIENCE

Privacy Manager - Americas | BP America

2005 - 2019

As a member of BP's global privacy team I was BP's Data Privacy Manager for the US and the Regional Privacy Coordinator for the Americas. I have been in this role since 2001. I was responsible for implementing BP's global privacy program in the US and the Americas. Key responsibilities included:

1. Facilitating compliance with legal, regulatory & BP Requirements including providing our businesses with the necessary tools, written procedures and advice on privacy compliance
2. Providing training and awareness
3. Providing guidance and advice
4. Verifying compliance through Privacy Impact Assessments (PIA's) and Audits
5. Leading a network of in country Local Privacy Coordinators (LPC's)

My speciality is in risk assessment, incident response, containment and mitigation, including conducting privacy audits both internally and at supplier locations globally. I have developed numerous audit approaches and risk assessment tools which have been deployed by BP globally. Most recently I developed a tool built on the Service

Now platform which provides end-to-end compliance with GDPR's Article 30's record keeping requirements. External auditors have extoled this process best in class.

HR Manager – Consultant | BP America/ Amoco

1985 – 2005

I held numerous HR Management and Consultant roles supporting BP and Amoco's businesses globally.

HR Advisor Roles

1978 - 1985

COMMUNICATION

Over the last 13 years I have conducted countless privacy training programs to BP personnel globally as well as at our service provider's locations. I have conducted seminars annually at BP's Legal college have presented twice at IAPP's global conferences.
